

Bambino High School Celebrates Diversity.

Bambino schools pride itself as a home to students from across the world. It is a melting pot of cultures and nationalities. For many years of its existence, the school has been home to students from far and wide who have come to Bambino to seek a quality education and a rewarding experience that come with learning at a truly international school. To celebrate this unique aspect of the school, Bambino High School recently hosted an international day under the theme, “Promoting Unity in Diversity.” This was exactly the aim of the international day.

Patrons were treated to some amazing performances that showcased the rich and diverse cultures found in Africa and beyond. In that sense Bambino is truly representative as not less than 12 countries were represented on the stage.

The activities commemorating the day, which took place on Friday, March 6 saw students from Turkey, Republic of South Africa, Zimbabwe, Mozambique, Zambia, Tanzania, Congo Brazzaville, India among others perform dances and sketches with a cultural leaning. Dressed in colorful traditional regalia, the learners proudly and effortlessly danced the day away. The big audience comprising of parents and teachers was thoroughly entertained and schooled.

The headmaster described the event as electric and spectacular. Almost everyone present including the students at the spectacle agreed that it was a refreshing event and they look forward to another international day in the near future. The day ended with a feast of a variety of dishes from selected countries. This was surely an international day worthy of the name.
